Re: Requests for Records on Missing POWS

Dear Ms. Dyer:

I represent Mr. Roger Hall and Studies Solutions Results, Inc., trading as POW/MIA FOIA Litigation Account. Mr. Hall is joined in this request by Mr. Reed Irvine and Accuracy in Media, Inc., who are represented by Mr. Joe Jablonski. As further described below, our clients seek records pertaining to members of the American Armed Forces who participated in the War in Vietnam and have been classified as Prisoners of War (POWs) and/or Missing in Action (MIAs), as well as any civilian detainees.

Roger Hall has for many years conducted research into the POW/MIA question for the National Alliance of Families, a service he provides without charge. He distributes the information he obtains in newspapers, research papers, and documents he provides to members of Congress, veterans and POW/MIA groups. His research contributions on this issue have been reprinted in newsletters and magazines, including the National Vietnam Veterans Coalition Magazine. The Marine Corps League POW/MIA Affairs News Letter and Information Report has on numerous occasions carried documentation he has made available to them. One of his contributions was reprinted in toto in an article in the Conservative Review. He has made public presentations to the National Alliance of Families and the Sarah McClendon Study Group, and appeared on the Zoe Hieronimus talk radio show. He has also briefed veterans groups, including the POW/MIA Ad Hoc Committee, the Disabled American Veterans, and the Veterans of Foreign Wars, among many other groups, as well as members of Congress and their staffs. Mr. Hall sends out email newsletters on POW matters to various organizations such as Rolling pride, Vietnow, and Pride of Illinois, which have a combined membership in excess of 100,000. The frequency of these newsletters varies from twice daily to twice a month.

The American Legion has manifested an interest in the missing POW/MIAs issue, and in Mr. Hall's work on it, carrying an interview of him in its December 2002 issue which dealt with his FOIA case to Materials on POW/MIAs will necessarily shed light on the operations or activities of the government. Among other things, they will reveal the extent, nature, intensity, and duration of the Government's efforts to locate POW/MIAs, a subject that has long been of intense interest to the public. Records disclosed to our clients are likely to contribute significantly to public understanding of such operations or activities, by disclosing records that have remained secret despite congressional inquiries and Presidential directives to disclose them. The records will provide information regarding the thoroughness, scope, intensity, dedication and creativity of the search for missing POW/MIAs, and whether or not it was conducted in good faith. This information will show the degree to which the CIA has complied with Executive Order 12812 and Presidential Decision Directive NSC 8 and whether it has accurately informed Congress and the public about its search efforts and the information it possesses. It will also show how the CIA cooperated and coordinated its search efforts with other agencies and how and the CIA controlled the documentation other agencies possessed regarding POW/MIAs and detainees.

As noted above, Roger Hall, through his company, Studies, Solutions Results, Inc., regularly disseminates information concerning missing POW/MIAs to organizations which further disseminate said information, and Hall and his company intend to continue to do this. Indeed, one of the stated purposes of Studies Solutions Results, Inc. is to obtain and disseminate information concerning missing POW/MIAs to the public. Reed Irvine and AIM similarly intend to disseminate information on this issue derived from this request to the public.

Accordingly, our clients are entitled to a waiver of copying costs, and they request that such a waiver be granted pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552 (a)(4)(a)(iii).

Sincerely yours,
