CONSENT MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME
TO RESPOND TO DEFENDANT'S
MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

Plaintiffs Roger Hall, Studies Solutions Resources, Inc. (collectively "Hall"), and Accuracy in Media ("AIM") move for an extension of time, to and including October 18, 2016, to respond to defendant's renewed motion for summary judgment.

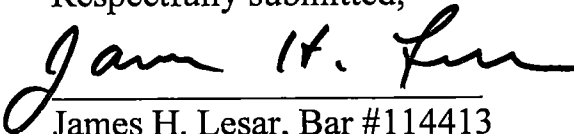

1. Plaintiffs previously moved for an extension of time to and including October 20, 2016 and the Court granted the motion.
2. On October 17, 2016, Hall's counsel was presented with lengthy leasing agreement which will enable him to immediately remove his voluminous office records to a new location. Because time was of the essence, he made a trip to the office of the leasing agent to sign the lease and a second trip, along with a visit to his bank, to submit two checks for the first month's rent and a security deposit. This occupied several hours.

3. After he accomplished this, he received an email message from the office of his endocrinologist advising him an appointment for Tuesday, October 18th, which he had thought was scheduled for Thursday, October 20th. Counsel has an appointment with his neuromuscular physical therapist, which, because it takes place in Bethesda, will consume several hours. In view of these matters and some unexpected interruptions, Hall's counsel needs another two days to finish his brief.

4. Defendant does not oppose this motion.

Respectfully submitted,
