Dear Messrs. Lesar and Clarke:

This is in response to your request under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) dated 7 February 2003. In response to the portion of Item #6 of your request that seeks records relating to the assessment of fees, the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) has conducted a diligent search of relevant systems of records that was reasonably calculated to discover any responsive records. Pursuant to that search, the CIA has identified two responsive records, copies of which are attached.

The two responsive documents contain information that is protected from disclosure by section 6 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, 50 U.S.C.A. § 403(g) (West Supp. 2004), and thus, such information is properly redacted under FOIA Exemption (b)(3).

Sincerely,

Christian Ricciardiello
Assistant General Counsel

Dear Messrs. Lesar and Clarke:

This letter responds to the remainder of item 6 of your 7 February 2003 Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request on behalf of Mr. Roger Hall for:

All records on or pertaining to any search conducted for documents responsive to Roger Hall's requests dated January 5, 1994, February 7, 1994, and April 23, 1998, including but not limited to all instructions and descriptions of searches to be undertaken by any component of the CIA and all responses thereto.

We processed your request in accordance with the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552, as amended.

We completed a thorough search for records responsive to your request, located material, and made the following determinations:

I have enclosed material that CIA can release in its entirety or in segregable form with deletions based on FOIA exemptions (b)(2), (b)(3), (b)(5), and (b)(6).

We determined that additional material is currently and properly classified or otherwise exempt and we must withhold it in its entirety based on FOIA exemptions (b)(1), (b)(2), (b)(3), (b)(5), and (b)(6).

Since your FOIA request is the subject of litigation in a United States District Court, the Agency cannot accept an administrative appeal of these decisions.

Thank you for your patience while we processed this request.

Sincerely,

R. P. Koch
